

Type	Name	Maturity	Notes	Source
Pole	Agate (Soybean)	65-70	Rare heirloom from New Mexico. Introduced from Japan in 1929, high yields	SS
Bush	Amethyst	56	Dwarf French bean, stringless purple pods. Good for containers	T&M
Bush	Belcampo	75	Dark green pod, stringless	T&M
Pole	Bingo	85	Borlotto type, 5 inch pods, cream/green streaked with pink Good dried for soups and traditional Italian recipes (pasta e fagiole)	Terr
Bush	Black Coco	60-95	Good eaten as snap, shell or quick cooking dry beans, 6" pods on plants 14"-16" tall.	Terr
Bush	Black Valentine	50-55	Introduced in 1897. Black seeds in 6" pods. Use as fresh snap or dry soup beans. Tolerant of cool weather.	Cmstk
Pole	Blauhilde	80	From Germany. Stringless round purple pods up to 11" long.	T&M
Bush	Calypso	70-90	Beautiful black and white dried bean. Sometimes called Orca or Yin-Yang. Originally from the Caribbean. Good for baking and soups.	SS
Pole	Cherokee Trail of Tears	85	Native American origin. Carried over the forced march to Oklahoma in 1838-1839 where over 4000 died. 6"pod, shiny black seeds. Good eaten as a snap or dry bean.	SS
Bush	Dragon's Tongue	55-60	Dutch origin, wax bean is crisp and juicy. Cream with purple stripes.	SS
Pole	Fasold	55	Early producer, good raw or cooked, mauve flowers, black seed.	T&M
Pole	Firetongue (Lingua di Fuoco)	80-120	Italian origin. Stringless pale green pods with red streaks. Crisp and juicy. Use young pods fresh or for shell beans	T&M
Pole	Fiskeby (Soybean)	75-80	Developed in Sweden. Use fresh or dried. Up to 40% protein. Thrives in N. climates	SS
Bush	Flambo	76-80	Beautiful cream and fuchsia pods. Good for freezing. Flavor like a fresh lima. Good in soup or pureed in hummus.	Terr
Bush	Golden Wax	45-60	Since the 1870's golden yellow stringless pods, buttery flavor, freezes well.	Cmstk
Bush	Henderson (Lima)	60-75	From 1889. hardy, productive disease resistant. Good for canning (pressure cooker)	SS
Bush	Lina Sisco's Bird Egg	85	Brought to Missouri via covered wagon in 1880's. Use as a dry bean.	SS
Bush	Midori Giant (Soybean)	70	Early maturing edamame. Vigorous plants to 15" tall, 2-3 seeds/pod	Terr
Pole	Monte Cristo	71	Similar to Blue Lake, 10" straight pods, white seeds. Use fresh and for preserving.	Terr
Bush	Papa de Rola (Breast of the Dove)	90	Origin in Portugal. Fine for fresh as snap bean, good for soups as a dried bean	Cmstk
Pole	Rattlesnake (Preacher's Bean)	60-90	Dark green 8" pod streaked with purple. Fine flavor. Use as a fresh or dried bean	Terr
Bush	Serpedor	75	Dwarf pale yellow stringless Roma type. Good for containers	T&M